

Problem 2 (25 points). Here are some sentences in Solresol written in the original musical notation and their English translations:

1.
The very good brothers cry because the white dog(M) left.
2.
The worst sister mounted our horse(M).
3.
My horse(M) does not see the small cows.
4.
Your(SG) mother would be happy if the old mare lives.
5.
A dog(F) will leave if the black bulls come.
6.
The grandmothers laugh because the sons were happy.
7.
A sad sister will leave if her mother cries.
8.
Our dogs(F) die if their mothers would not love them.
9.
Old people will close the very small museum.
10.
The oldest cows did not leave because they are happy.

(continued on next page)

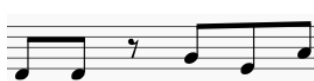

(a) Translate into English:

11.

12.

13.

Below are some more constructions in Solresol and their English translations in random order:

14. 	a. cousin(M)
15. 	b. Eat!
16. 	c. to eat
17. 	d. forgetful
18. 	e. king
19. 	f. pig(M)
20. 	g. queen
21. 	h. (he) had remembered

(b) Make the correct correspondences.

(c) Write in Solresol:

22. A happy cousin(F) had eaten a cow.
23. Kings would die if their young pigs(F) got blind.
24. My biggest dog(F) does not remember if a bull lives.
25. Your(PL) grandfather was sad because the youngest son opened a very small museum.

△ Solresol is a constructed language devised by François Sudre in the 1820s. It was originally called Langue universelle and later Langue musicale universelle.

A mare is a female horse.

M = masculine; F = feminine; SG = singular; PL = plural.

—Vlad A. Neacșu