

Problem 4 (25 points). Here are some sentences in Epun and their English translations:

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1. Midebiniz sminus fa vakvelopiz. | Some kings kiss the walruses_M. |
| 2. Avetius fa koviniz gub midep. | The children_M don't love this queen. |
| 3. Tak huspat asa hiel? | What have they_M looked at? |
| 4. Asa hahielogus pelidiniz. | Some tortoises_F haven't looked at them. |
| 5. Guza hakakolgu gub kodin. | This child_F hasn't seen her. |
| 6. Panibu imnikin. | A cat_M doesn't come. |
| 7. Osozegu guza midepiz. | She doesn't catch (any) queens. |
| 8. Tak hagupat gub kodin kakol? | What has this child_F seen? |
| 9. Afa bozudin avetigu gub imnip. | The teacher_F loves this cat_F. |
| 10. Tak upat fa vakvelin osoze? | What does the walrus_M catch? |
| 11. Fa pelikopiz nisa hosozenis. | We have caught the tortoises_M. |
| 12. Afa pelipiz bozudiniz havetigus. | Some teachers_F have loved the tortoises_F. |
| 13. Imnikiniz hapanibus. | Some cats_M have come. |
| 14. Fa kovin binapu. | The child_M returns. |

(a) Translate into English:

15. Tak haguspat panib?
16. Nisa havetigu guza.
17. Imnipiz nisa hakakolnis.

(b) Translate into Epun:

18. The walrus_F kisses us.
19. This king hasn't come.
20. Some cats_F don't look at a child_F.
21. The queens have loved the tortoise_M.

(c) Translate into Epun in all possible ways:

22. What have they loved?
23. What returns?

(d) Based on the information given, you cannot translate the following sentence into Epun. Why?

24. She doesn't see the teacher_M.

△ Epun is an invented language, deliberately devised to contain constructions which violate universal grammatical principles.

ch = ch in chop

The subscripts _M and _F refer to masculine and feminine, respectively.

—Vlad A. Neacșu, based on a problem by Adina Dragomirescu

Editors: Farhan Ishraq, Daria Kryvosheieva, Vlad A. Neacșu, Tung-Le Pan
Technical editor: Vlad A. Neacșu

Good luck!