(c) Translate into Paunaka and mark the stress:

- | | |
|--|---|
| 20. It is said that you _{pl} were hearing me. | 23. It is said that we will sit. |
| 21. She was taking you _{sg} . | 24. I lifted them. |
| 22. They will lift her. | 25. It is said that she already saw us. |

△ Paunaka is a critically endangered Southern Arawakan language. In 2022 there were only eight speakers remaining, with different proficiencies in the language.

ɛ and i are vowels; β, j, and tʃ are consonants. The mark ' before a syllable marks the stress.
