

Problem #4: Turkish News and Conversation

Solution:

In Turkish,

1. There are two forms of the verb in past tenses: direct and indirect
2. The suffixes di/dı/dü indicate the direct form
3. The suffixes miş/mış/müş indicate the indirect form
4. The form of the suffix that is used depends on the vowel preceding it.

Preceding Vowel	Vowel in Suffix
a	ı
i	i
ü	ü

Assignment	Answer
Assignment 1: Which is the original report? 1 or 2	Report 2
Assignment 2: Translate to English	From the data provided in the problem, it should be possible to translate the underlined phrases, except for the parts in the parenthesis.
Bakan yorum yapmaya müsait değilmiş.	The minister was not available (for comment).
Daha önce hastaymış, şu an iyileşiyor.	He was sick (and) is (now) recovering .
12 Mart'ta şehir merkezinde görülmüş.	He was seen at the town centre on 12th March .
Bakan en son 12 Mart'ta şehir merkezinde görüldü.	The minister was (last) seen at the town centre on 12th March .
Gazetemiz ona ulaşmaya çalıştığında yorum yapmaya müsait değildi.	(When our newspaper tried to contact him, he) was not available (for comment)
Daha önce hastaydı, şu an iyileşiyor.	(He) was sick earlier , but is recovering (now).