

3. Kurmali (20 marks)

Problem designed by Bornini Lahiri

Here are sentences in Kurmali and their respective English translations.

- | | | |
|-----|--------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 1. | moi bat khau | I ate rice |
| 2. | moira bat khayonu | We ate rice |
| 3. | toi choani ke dekhliae | You (Masculine) saw a girl |
| 4. | toira choara ke dekhlini | You all saw the boys. |
| 5. | choara choani ke dekhaone | Boys saw a girl. |
| 6. | choara ghar dekhaonu | Boys saw the house. |
| 7. | kokur kha | Dog ate. |
| 8. | kokura khayon | Dogs ate. |
| 9. | toi kokur ke dekhleou | You (feminine) saw a dog. |
| 10. | Radha Salman ke dekhuoi | Radha saw Salman. |
| 11. | choanira bhat khaenu | Girls ate rice. |
| 12. | Salman Radha ke putuli deaoue | Salman gave a doll to Radha. |

Assignment 1 [Answer Booklet]: Translate the following sentences in Kurmali.

- | | |
|------------------------|-----------------------------|
| 1. I saw Radha. | 4. A girl gave Radha dolls. |
| 2. I gave Salman rice. | 5. Radha saw the boys. |
| 3. Girls ate the rice. | 6. We saw a dog. |

Assignment 2: Explain how the grammar of the language works.

Notes: (1) Kurmali is a language spoken in some of the districts of West Bengal, Jharkhand, Orissa and Madhya Pradesh. It is believed to be a mixed language. (2) The data has been modified slightly for ease of solvability.
